The First Baptist church has ever since its organization been so unfortunate as to have a small and rather discordant element, who have caused no little amount of trouble. Much of the time this element has been kept balanced and in subjection to the majority. who have been earnest and barmonious. A few years ago by the and ortinate conduct of the then pastor, there was a general scattering and the chirch organization was well night ruined. Out of the wreck the present pastor, Rev. Dr. Cooley, a wise leader, has gathered up a goodly membership, and rallying a large number of others has succeeded ing a large number of others, has succeeded in building up a strong, active and apparently harmonious church. A few have begun another agitation, in favor of some changes and in order to get a full expression as to the sentiment of the church, a meeting has been held. The year being these the property of the continuence of the church, a meeting has been held. sentiment of the church, a meeting has been held. The vote being taken on the retention of the able pastor, it was decided by an overwhelming majority that he should be retained. There were less than a dozen who held a different view. Dr. Cooley has done for this church what few other men could have done, and the members seem to appreciate it.

"Manawa Clark" Again Heard From. Yesterday a quit claim deed was filed for record by which Frank Clark, who gained such notoriety in connection with the Manawa hotel, protends to deed to one E. D. Mills, of Atchison, Kan., all his interests in the property. The deed is marked at the top, "Manaya hotel property," by which it appears that Clark intended to deed what rights he had in the property, and that Mills supposed he was getting these rights. For some reason the deed contains a description of lets in block 31, whereas the hotel is in some reason the deed contains a description of lots in block 30. This may be a mistake, and if so it needs to be corrected before Mr. Clarke succeeds in deeding what rights he may have in that property. It is understood that Clark never claimed to have any interest in the block described in the deed, so it must be some mistake. The consideration is only $80, from which it appears that Clark does not consider his equities in the hotel property as very valuable. It appears that Mills took the deed in settlement of some claim against Clark, who is now operating in Atchison, and after getting the deed; wrote to parties here to take it off his hands. He will doubtless be a little surprised to learn that if Clark has any rights to the property he has not deeded them in this instrument, but has named lots in another block. The little transaction does not practically affect the Manawa hetel, as it is understood that Chark's interest is not enough to hardly warrant making out any papers.

DAILY BEE FEARFUL FALL OF FIVE MEN

While Tearing Down The Roof of the Old Catholic Church.

THE DEMOCRATIC DIFFERENCES.

Talks With Both Sides-The Baptist Church Retains Its Pastor-A Double Wedding - The City Fathers.

A Fearful [Fall.

Vesterday a startling accident occurred during the progress of the work of tearing down the old Catholic church. A gang of men were on the roof tearing away the old rafters, when several of the timbers suddenly gave way, falling with a terrible crash into the basement below, and hurling with them four men. The distance was fully thirty-five feet, and as one of the chimneys fell at the same time, it seemed almost a mir acle that the men who went down in such a tangled crash of timbers and flying brick escaped with no fatal injuries. The four who were injured were Henry Slaughter, A. J. Davis, Charles Adams and Buck Poland. J. Davis, Charles Adams and Buck Poland.
They all received cuts and bruises of a painful nature, and were speedily being cared for by Dr. Pinney, whose office was fortunately right across the street. Slaughter had a cut on the face, near the eye, a scratch on the chin, and a painfully bruised hip, but was able to walk and did not consider his inturies serious.

A. J. Davis had a bloody bruise on the check, and his hip and back were quite sore, he having been caught under some of the fall-ing timbers, and unable to get up until these timbers were lifted from off him. He was able then to walk about. Charles Adams was one of the more seriously injured. The ex-tent of his hurts cannot be determined for a few days, as he was apparently injured more internally than externally. He was conscious, though suffering greatly, and was taken to his home on lower Broadway in a carriage. Young Poland was also badly hurt, his chest paining him greatly, rendering it difficult for him to breath. There appeared to be no bones broken, and is hoped that in a few days he may recover

John Reech had a most fortunate escape. as he was with the other men, but when the timbers fell carrying them down, he clung to the brick wall, and was not injured.

It seems that there was great carelessness on the part of those who had charge of the tearing down of the old building. The sup-ports had been removed from under the roof, and the naked rafters were simply resting on the walls with nothing to support them from below, and nothing to prevent their swaying or spreading out of place. The work of taking down these timbers required some skillful and experienced man, who could direct the men carefully, and had such been the case the accident would probably have been avoided. As it was the escape from fatal consequences was very fortunate.

That Democratic Split.

An article appeared in yesterday morning's Republican to the effect that Rober Huntington, the recently defeated candidate for the office of city clerk, who acted as teller at the caucus in the First ward, had "confessed" to counting Whaterman in, and Rudio out in the cold. As it seemed eminently unreasonable that a person should confess such a thing even if guilty, a BEE reporter called upon Mr. Huntington, and asked if the statement was true. promptly characterized it as a "bare-faced lie, unqualified by and maliciously false," and said the most that he had ever said in regard to the matter was that he had worked harder for Waterman's nomination than any one else in the First ward, and that he thought Waterman's action in afterward voting against him in the city council most ungrateful. In regard to the report that the Young Men's Democratic club is to be reorganized Huntington as president that gen tleman spoke as follows:

"I am aware that there is much dissatis faction existing within the club over the recent action of the council in particular, and the general action of the leaders in general, but as far as the breaking up of this club and the organizing of a new one is concerned, the idea is simply preposterous."

One of the leading "bolters" is Dan Carrigg, who expressed himself in this manner: rigg, who expressed himself in this manner:
"I am sorry I was a democrat at the last election, but I won't be caught the same way again. Some of us are disgusted with the way these old 'ring' becaute doing business and we are going out on a strike. We have it all platined, and there are just thirteen of these fellows who are licking off the cream now who will be slaughtered. We cream now, who will be slaughtered. We won't have snything to do with them, and they can't even attend our meetings when we reorganize. You say there are five demo-crats in the council, but there are but two, Kepher and Bellinger. I tell you we feel sore towards Waterman and we don't deny it. I admire Weaver, even if he was against ws, for he stood straight clear through, but Waterman made a stand and then sneaked out, and we have no use for him. This talk about Bowman and his gang doing all the work is wrong, for other felks do the work and they get the benefit. If we can't win an election we can throw it to the republicant."

and they get the benefit. If we can't win an election we can throw it to the republicans."

Mayor Rohrer was asked for his opinion in the matter, and said: "Why, its the greatest lot of bosh I have heard in a long time. They talk about having money to buy a newspaper and all such things, but I want to see it before I believe it. I don't believe they can even make a little jingle. They will have their little splurge, but I don't think they will ever attempt to make a split."
